"A CANDIDATE FOR THE REASON THAT I BELIEVE I CAN SAVE THE TAX-PAYERS MONEY."

Dana H. Hinkley

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR
Twenty-Ninth District

HINKLEY'S WORK

No member of the present legislature has done better work for the state of Michigan during this session than Rep. Dana H. Hinkley of Emmet county. His efforts have stood out with constant conspicuousness since the day when he was named chairman of the ways and means committee of the house.

As the head of the most important committee in the lower body of the legislature he has carried more responsibilities than any one member of either house. With these responsibilities went great power and it can be said to his credit that he used this power sparingly and wisely.

Not the least of his service has been his determined effort to curtail the expenses which will attend the operation of the state government during the next two years.

During the last session of the legislature Senator Charles Foster, of Lansing, whose bill making an appropriation of $800,000 for a new office building passed the senate by unanimous vote, was assured by members of the house that the bill would be passed if it could be pried out of the ways and means committee. It was reported favorably by the house committee on public buildings, but Chairman Harry Hinkley of the ways and means committee refused to report it out on the ground that the state could not spare the money.—Grand Rapids Herald.

Another state legislator who should be returned—for the good of Michigan is Representative D. H. Hinkley of Petoskey. Hinkley has served as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Lower House. He knows just how badly Michigan needs a "Budget System" for making appropriations. He can be of inestimable service in perfecting a workable "Budget System" that will produce results. His experience and his advice will be of incalculable value to this end. Mr. Hinkley rendered Michigan invaluable service as Ways and Means Committee Chairman.—Grand Rapids Herald.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican. THE OFFICE, THE PARTY, AND THE MAN

WILLIAM H. HILL
Candidate for the Republican Nomination for United States Senator August 29th.

William H. Hill is a Republican and it is as a thorough-going, uncompromising Republican that he offers himself at the Primaries August 29 for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

But there are certain characteristics of Mr. Hill's Republicanism that he wishes thoroughly understood. He is neither a radical, nor a conservative, least of all is he a reactionary.

By radicalism Mr. Hill understands action not based on good judgment and common sense; by conservatism a lack of action that amounts to timidity, failure to grasp new conditions; by reactionism, no action at all—stagnation.

Mr. Hill is progressive in his practice and application of Republican theory and doctrine.

By that he means that he recognizes new facts, new conditions, when they arise and believes that theory and principles of government should be adapted to fit these new facts and conditions.

There should always be progress. One cannot stand still. One should advance with the times—molding and adapting principles to the new problems that arise, but never altering the fundamentals. It is this sort of Republicanism that Mr. Hill practices and will practice.

That he has the courage of his convictions was proved in 1912 when, believing that the conditions of that hour demanded it, he followed Colonel Roosevelt. He ran for Congressman-at-large and polled the largest vote, next to Roosevelt, running ahead of his ticket 20,000, and exceeding the vote of the Republican nominee for governor by 5,000.

Mr. Hill remains unshaken in his belief in the soundness of the progressive Republican theories. Those who believe in progressivism as a necessary element in all political theory and who supported Mr. Hill so generously in 1912 may rest assured that the same ideals of government for which he stood at that time will actuate his conduct if he is nominated for United States Senator and elected on the Republican ticket.

Support him as you did four years ago and it will mean that the advocates of progress and humanity will have a friend in court. The Primaries are August 29th. Get out and place an X before the name of Wm. H. Hill.

Man of Big Affairs for Public Service.

With a record of no failures, Frank B. Leland offers his varied and extensive business experience and equipment to his native state. Wayne county solid for him—the first candidate since Pingree to enjoy such a distinction.

The Governorship Question.

(An editorial from the Charlotte Tribune of August 9, the publication that so loyally backed Lieutenant-Governor Dickinson for governor, now supporting Mr. Leland.)

With Lieutenant Governor L. D. Dickinson, Eaton county's former candidate for the gubernatorial race, out of the field for governor, the voters will be turning to one or another of the candidates for the place and Frank B. Leland of Detroit seems to meet with considerable favor in local circles and is also making strong gains throughout the state. Wayne county will give Mr. Leland almost solid support as at a recent meeting of various factions it appeared that all were united on him.

Mr. Leland was born on an Oakland county farm and today owns and operates the farm on which his boyhood was spent. He worked his way thru the University of Michigan, and has made good as a lawyer in Flint and Detroit. He has been twice elected a regent of the University of Michigan, which office he has filled with credit and ability as is evidenced by the great support he is receiving from the thousands of University alumni.

Mr. Leland organized a savings bank, of which he has been president for 15 years, and it a thoroughly capable business man who would make a governor strong enough to bring about improved methods in the state's system of taxation and expenditures, concerning which he has expressed himself in no uncertain terms.

Mr. Leland is a man of high ideals, undaunted courage and tireless industry and his election to the office of governor would mean the inauguration of many important public improvements, with a big reduction in expenses, which would be a relief to the overburdened taxpayers of the state. Mr. Leland is not tied to any of the factions or interests and, as governor, would be in a better position to give the state better service than if he had alliances with the past and promises for the future. He has no elements of weakness to defend or explain.

Michigan needs an honest man for governor and one of ability, courage, broadmindedness and good common sense.

Such a man is FRANK B. LELAND.

FRANK B. LELAND

(Detroit News editorial Aug. 5, '16.)

Now that the Wayne county and Detroit republican organization are pledged to Frank B. Leland's candidacy for governor, his chances of securing the nomination have been greatly improved. Detroit has not produced a governor since Pingree—and Michigan admits that he was a good one. But Mr. Leland has more than a geographical claim to consideration. He combines the education and training of a lawyer with those of a business man, and is thus fitted not only to give Michigan that "business administration" which of late years has been so clamorously desired by certain groups, but also to give expert attention to legislation.

Mr. Leland has never been an office seeker. His election as regent of the University of Michigan in 1907 and again in 1913 gave him a place of honor rather than of political influence. It was a position in which executive capacity was needed, and this Mr. Leland showed he had. In another field of public service he has won popular esteem—the fight against tuberculosis. There he has shown fine qualities of organization and leadership.

Michigan republicans will do well to consider the qualifications of the Wayne county candidates, and to compare them with those of other aspirants for the nomination. It would be a mistake to choose him merely because Detroit may feel that this city is entitled to consideration. But if his record and his abilities, his broadmindedness and his freedom from factionalism appeal to the party, it should not let minor considerations influence it.

THE REPUBLICAN WHO UNITED THE PARTY IN WAYNE COUNTY.

"AMERICA FIRST AND AMERICA EFFICIENT."

We come to state in a plain and direct manner our faith, our purpose and our pledge. This representative gathering is a happy augury. It means the strength of reunion. It means that the party of Lincoln is restored, alert, effective. It means the unity of a common perception of paramount national needs. It means that we are neither deceived nor benumbed by abnormal conditions. We know that we are in a critical period, perhaps more critical than any period since the Civil War. We need a dominant sense of national unity; the exercise of our best constructive powers; the vigor and resourcefulness of a quickened America. We desire that the Republican Party as a great liberty party shall be the agency of national achievement, the organ of the effective expression of dominant Americanism. What do I mean by that? I mean America conscious of power, awake to obligation, erect in self-respect, prepared for every emergency, devoted to the ideals of peace, instinct with the spirit of human brotherhood, safeguarding both individual opportunity and the public interest, maintaining a well-ordered constitutional system adapted to local self-government without the sacrifice of essential national authority, appreciating the necessity of stability, expert knowledge and thorough organization as the indispensable conditions of security and progress; a country loved by its citizens with a patriotic fervor permitting no division in their allegiance and no rivals in their affection—I mean America first and America efficient. It is in this spirit that I respond to your summons.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.
